

Wyoming Library Association
Outstanding Librarian

The Outstanding Librarian award recognizes the significant and outstanding accomplishments of a library employee in the past year, including service to the public and/or library community. It is also meant to reflect the goals of WLA and the library profession as a whole.

Nomination Questions

- Contributions to WLA and the library profession in the past year.
- Contributions to the employee's library and the local surrounding community in the past year.
- Original and innovative planning, thinking, and using resources in the past year for special projects and/or programs.
- Advocating the library's role and position of importance in the community in the past year.
- Additional comments and supporting documentation (optional; maximum of three pages).